BOULDER CREEK 50-YEAR LIMITED WARRANTY

Boulder Creek products are warranted for 50 years from the date of purchase to be free of defects when installed in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions on a structure conforming to local building codes. Boulder Creek will furnish, free-of-charge, new materials to replace any materials determined to be defective. This does not include any labor charges for installation.

This warranty covers only manufacturing defects in Boulder Creek manufactured stone products and does not extend to or cover damage resulting from:

- Settlement of the building or other wall movement
- Contact with chemicals, paint, or staining
- Discoloration from airborne contaminants, oxidation, or fading associated with the normal aging process
- Faulty installation

This warranty extends to the original purchaser only and is not transferable. Boulder Creek is not responsible for labor costs associated with removal and replacement of defective products. Implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose are excluded from warranty coverage.
